Hello! My name is Brooke Mizukawa and I have always been interested in history, literature, the arts, and the medical field. Since I started working at 14, I am confident in my experience. I have accomplished a ton in my life that I am extremely proud of such as:

- Having a 3.9 or higher GPA since intermediate school
- Being awarded for "Most hard working student" my sophomore year of high school
- Starting my own business
- CPR and First aid certified
- Certified CNA and EMT experience/training

And more. I am a hardworking and motivated young woman with much to offer. I have proven time and time again that I am capable of whatever people put in front of me. I am flexible and smart and can use my talents and my knowledge to do anything I put my mind to. I know the difference between a professional environment and a fun one. I truly hope you consider my experience and my personality for I know I am ready and capable of what is ready in my future.
